Leadership Fundamentals for High Performance

 For early-career professionals under 35

ASG invites exceptional young leaders across Africa to join the inaugural cohort. Through a practical, immersive experience, participants build the mindset, skills and capabilities to navigate complexity, drive results, and contribute to Africa's transformation, learning to lead themselves, manage people and processes, and design quality systems for sustainable impact.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Leading Self

Build self-awareness, clarify your values and purpose, and grow the resilience to lead through uncertainty.

Leading Others

Manage people and processes through communication, trust-building, team leadership and coaching.

Leading Systems

Understand how institutions work, apply systems thinking, and design quality systems that drive performance and change.

Who should apply

- Young leaders aged 18–35
- Women, refugees, displaced youth, youth with disabilities, and leaders from underserved communities are strongly encouraged to apply

What you receive

- Full access to the learning program
- Mentorship from experienced African leaders
- Certificate of Completion
- Access to the ASG Alumni Network
- Networking opportunities with African leaders

Your path to the inaugural cohort

Weeks 1 & 2 · Online

- Faculty-led learning sessions
- Peer learning circles & dialogue
- Reflections, assignments & leadership exercises

Week 3 · In-person, Kigali

- Interactive masterclasses & simulations
- Cross-generational & cross-sector networking
